The Ljubljana Festival was founded by the City of Ljubljana.

Dobrodošli v glasbeni svet, prežet z mladostno energijo!

V letošnjo barvito jesen vstopamo z mednarodnim glasbenim ciklom Mladi virtuoz, ki ga je pred šestindvajsetimi leti ustanovil direktor in umetniški vodja Festivala Ljubljana, Darko Brlek. Vse do pomladi bodo Viteško dvorano Križank zvočno bogatili koncertni večeri, na katerih se bodo predstavili nadobudni mladi ustvarjalci, ki življenje posvečajo glasbeni umetnosti. Že od mladih nog nastopajo na koncertnih odrih tako v solistični vlogi kot v komornih zasedbah, prav tako pa se udeležujejo številnih glasbenih tekmovanj in na njih dosegajo najvišja priznanja. Glasbeni talenti vlagajo veliko truda in časa v svoje vsakodnevno izpopolnjevanje, kar se kaže na nastopih, saj navdušijo z virtuozno, izjemno muzikalično in zrelo glasbeno igro. Mednarodni glasbeni cikel Mladi virtuoz ponuja možnosti za vzgojo mladih poslušalcev in izvajalcev, od katerih je odvisen današnji svet kulture in umetnosti. Preživite večer v družbi domačih in gostujočih glasbenikov iz Poljske, Srbije, Finske, Rusije, Japonske, Avstrije in Hrvaške. Koncerti so namenjeni vsem ljubiteljem glasbe in so prav posebna izkušnja tako za glasbene sladokusce kot tiste, ki se s klasično glasbo srečujete prvič.

Welcome to a musical world imbued with youthful energy!

We begin this colourful autumn with the international music cycle Young Virtuosi, founded twenty-six years ago by Darko Brlek, the general and artistic director of the Ljubljana Festival. A series of concert evenings featuring promising young artists who have dedicated their lives to music will fill the Knights' Hall at Križanke with rich sounds until spring. All of them have been performing in concerts, both as soloists and as members of chamber ensembles, from an early age. They have also participated in numerous music competitions, where they have achieved the highest honours. These talented musicians invest a great deal of time and effort in the daily process of perfecting their skills – something that is reflected in their performances, which are characterised by astonishing virtuosity, remarkable musicality, and maturity. The international music cycle Young Virtuosi is an opportunity to educate the young listeners and performers on whom today's world of culture and art depends. Come and spend an evening in the company of young musicians from Slovenia and visiting performers from Poland, Serbia, Finland, Russia, Japan, Austria and Croatia. The concerts are aimed at all music lovers and are a very special experience both for musical connoisseurs and for those who are encountering classical music for the first time.

Kvartet Four Characters je bil ustanovljen oktobra 2016.

Precej nenavadna zasedba oboe, flavte, klarineta in klavirja je nastala, ko so se za skupno muziciranje odločili štiri študentje Akademije za glasbo Ljubljana. V kvartetu igrajo Laura Felicijan (flavta), Peter Lackovič (oboa), Jan Pušnik

Na Temsigu so prvič izvedli skladbo skladatelja Črta Sojarja Voglarja z naslovom Štirje karakterji, po kateri so se tudi poimenovali in je bila napisana prav zanje. Z njo so imeli možnost sodelovati pri projektu zavoda Sploh, imenovanega Zvokotok, ki odkriva nove možnosti klasičnega koncertiranja in dodatno širi izvajalske možnosti.

Lara Hrastnik began playing the harp at the music school in Celje, where she also completed secondary school. She currently teaches the harp at the Ljubljana Moste-Polje Music School.

The Four Characters Quartet was founded in October 2016. This relatively unusual ensemble consisting of oboe, flute, clarinet and piano formed when four students of the Ljubljana Academy of Music decided to make music together. The quartet's members – Laura Felicijan (flute), Peter Lackovič (oboe), Jan Pušnik (piano) and Špela Šrgan (clarinet) – are all very active as soloists and regularly participate in competitions and seminars throughout Europe. Oboist M. Šarc has been their mentor since the beginning. In March this year they took part in the national young musicians' competition (TEMSIG), winning a gold plaque and taking first place. This success has opened many doors to them and festival appearances throughout Slovenia await them in the coming months. At TEMSIG they gave the premiere performance of a piece by Črt Sojar Voglar entitled Four Characters, which was composed specially for them and from which they take their name. This piece gave them the opportunity to participate in the Sploh Institute's Zvokotok project, which explores new possibilities of classical music making and broadens the possibilities of performance.

Kvartet Atalante je bil ustanovljen leta 2014 ter združuje mlade glasbenike z Univerze za glasbo in upodabljaljoče umetnosti na Dunaju in Univerze Mozarteuma v Salzburgu. Na njihovo interpretacijo komorne glasbe vplivajo osebne izkušnje s člani kvartetov Alban Berg in Hagen in godalnega sesteta Wiener Streichsextett ter Ferencem Radosom in Andrasom Schiffom. Ansambel je občutno preoblikovalo redno sodelovanje z Johannesom Meisslom (članom kvarteta Artis) in Hattom Beyerlejem. Ansambel je leta 2018 prejel prvo nagrado na mednarodnem tekmovanju komorne glasbe Svirél v Sloveniji. Glavna naloga kvarteta Atalante je ohranjati tradicijo in hkrati ob izkoriščanju navdiha in premagovanju izzivov ustvarjati ključen občutek povezanosti.

Klavirski duo Dombrova

sestavljata mlada ambiciozna pianista iz Dąbrowe Gorniče na Poljskem. Łukasz Szubski in Krzysztof Włodarczyk sta prijatelja od šestega leta. Spoznala sta se v glasbeni šoli med obiskovanjem klavirskih ur pri isti učiteljici M. Adamczyk. Mentorica je pri njiju vzbudila strast do instrumenta in klasične glasbe. Łukasz in Krzysztof sta leta 2010 začela študirati na Glasbeni akademiji Karola Szymanowskega v Katovicah. V naslednjih petih letih sta izrabila vsako priložnost za sodelovanje z uglednimi pianisti in pedagogi na področju klasične glasbe na Poljskem. Oba glasbenika sta priredila že številne koncerte v mladinskih in kulturnih domovih, nastopila pa sta tudi na posebnih dogodkih, kot so študentski umetniški festival SAFka v Katovicah in koncerti v dvorani Royal Albert Hall v Londonu, v Šlezijjski filharmoniji v Katovicah, na Akademiji za glasbo Stanisława Moniuszka v Gdanskju in v Palači kulture v Dabrovi Gorniči. Łukasz in Krzysztof trenutno delata na Glasbeni šoli v Dabrovi Gorniči kot učitelja klavirja in korepetitorja. Od leta 2011 sta pianista dejavna v Šlezijjski filharmoniji, kjer izvajata širok repertoar klasične in popularne glasbe.

Founded in 2014, the Atalante Quartet brings together young musicians from the University of Music and Performing Arts in Vienna and the Mozarteum in Salzburg. Their interpretation of chamber music is informed by their experiences working with members of the Alban Berg Quartet, the Hagen Quartet and the Wiener Streichsextett, and with pianists Ferenc Rados and András Schiff. Above all, regular work with Johannes Meissl (a member of the Artis Quartet) and Hatto Beyerle have shaped the ensemble significantly. In 2018 the ensemble won first prize at the Svirél International Music Competition in Slovenia. The Atalante Quartet's highest priority is to keep the chamber music tradition alive, while at the same time building an essential sense of togetherness as they harness their inspiration and challenge themselves.

The Dombrova Piano Duo consists of two young, ambitious, music-loving pianists from Dąbrowa Górnicza, Poland. Łukasz Szubski and Krzysztof Włodarczyk have been friends since they were six. Both began their musical education at their local music school, where they attended piano lessons with the same teacher – M. Adamczyk – who awakened in them a passion for the instrument and for classical music. In 2010 they both entered the Karol Szymanowski Academy of Music in Katowice. Over the course of the next five years they took every opportunity to work with eminent pianists and teachers. Both have performed numerous concerts at youth and community centres and during special events such as the sSAFka Student Art Festival in Katowice, a concert at the Royal Albert Hall in London, a concert at the Silesian Philharmonic Hall in Katowice, a concert at the Stanisław Moniuszko Academy of Music in Gdańsk, and a concert at the Palace of Culture in Dąbrowa Górnicza. They are currently employed as piano teachers and accompanists at the music school in Dąbrowa Górnicza. Since 2011 they both have been working as pianists for the Silesian Philharmonic, performing a wide repertoire of classical and popular music.

Duo Vita & Žan sta nadobudna glasbenika, ki sta skupno glasbeno pot začela pred približno dvema letoma na Akademiji za glasbo in upodablajočo umetnost Gradec v sosednji Avstriji. Redno koncertirata na različnih prizoriščih doma in po Evropi, kot

so: International Music Competition Vienna – Grand Prize Virtuoso, ALBA – International Chamber Music Festival 2016 (Levico Terme in Toscolano Maderno), Estate Musicale del Conservatorio 2016

(Mantova), Internationale Musikwoche Großlobming, Redoute 2016 (Gradec), festival Lent, festival Grobnik (Reka), Château de Bourgon (Francija), Salieri – Zinetti Competition Festival (Verona). Njun repertoar zajema glasbena dela od baroka do sodobne glasbe, skozenj pa se ves čas prepleta tango. Glasbo in svoji glasbilli opišeta tako: »Violončelo in harmonika ... Na prvi pogled neobičajen, a zvočno popoln komorni sestav. Nežen, mehek zven violončela, ki se spaja z barvami harmonij, harmonike, predstavlja kontrast, a kljub temu stičišče spoštovanja do umetnosti, ljubezni do glasbe. Pričakovanja družbe ali samega sebe nas v današnjem času mnogokrat zamegljijo, pozabljamo na pristen občutek s stvarnostjo. Glasba lahko deluje na ljudi kot terapija, umiritev in vračanje h koreninam. Lahko nam ponudi nepopisne občutke. Družba potrebuje sejalice ljubezni in spokojnosti, veseliva se vsakega trenutka, ko nama uspe ljudem to ponuditi kot nekaj najbolj čutnega in nedotakljivega.«

Duo Dendrocopos sestavljata mlada tolkalca Jan Čibej in Luka Poljanec. Luka Poljanec končuje izobraževanje na Konservatoriju za glasbo in balet Ljubljana, Jan Čibej pa je študent prvega letnika Akademije za glasbo. Na pobudo njunega profesorja in mentorja S. Klavžarja sta aprila

2017 sprejela izziv in se kot duo začela pripravljati na prestižno tekmovanje za tolkalne komorne skupine International Percussion Competition Luxembourg (IPCL), ki poteka v Luksemburgu vsake tri leta. Februarja 2018 sta prepričala žirijo in občinstvo ter dosegla izjemen uspeh, saj sta bila lavreata tekmovanja. Prejela sta prvo nagrado in posebno nagrado občinstva Jean Gieres. Marca 2018 sta se udeležila tekmovanja Svirél v kategoriji komornih skupin s pihali, trobili in tolkali in prav tako kot najboljša v kategoriji prejela zlato plaketo in nastopila na zaključnem koncertu Ten of the best. Tolkala sta začela igrati v zgodnjem otroštvu in že med izobraževanjem kot solista dosegla veliko zavidljivih uspehov na državnih in mednarodnih tekmovanjih. Redno sta se udeleževala dodatnih izobraževanj: Nebojša Jovan Živković Summer Academy (ZISAMP), International Katarzyna Myćka Marimba Academy (IKMMA) v Hannoveru, KALIMA in Amsterdam marimba Weekend. Na mojstrskih tečajih sta se izpopolnjevala pri svetovno znanih profesorjih in tolkalcih.

Duo Vita & Žan consists of a pair of promising young musicians who began making music together approximately two years ago at the University of Music and Performing Arts in Graz, Austria. They have performed regularly at various venues both in Slovenia and around Europe, including: Grand Prize Virtuoso International Music Competition Vienna, ALBA International Chamber Music Festival 2016 (Levico Terme and Toscolano Maderno), Estate Musicale del Conservatorio 2016 (Mantua), Internationale Musikwoche Großlobming, Redoute 2016 (Graz), Lent Festival (Maribor), Grobnik Festival (Rijeka), Château de Bourgon (France), Salieri-Zinetti Competition Festival (Verona). Their repertoire ranges from the baroque to contemporary music, with tango running through it as a common thread (they can also adapt their programme to specific requirements). They describe their music and their instruments as follows: "The cello and the accordion... At first glance an unusual combination but one that offers a perfect blend of sounds. The tender, soft sound of the cello blends with the colourful harmonies of the accordion and creates a contrast that is also a place where respect for art and love of music can meet. The expectations that society places on us – or that we place on ourselves – in today's world can lead to confusion and cause us to forget the genuine feelings that are connected with creativity. Music can act as a kind of therapy that soothes us and takes us back to our roots. It can fill us with feelings that are difficult to describe. Society needs people who spread love and tranquillity. We are happy when we are able to offer this most sensuous and intangible of gifts to people."

Duo Dendrocopos consists of the young percussionists Jan Čibej and Luka Poljanec. Luka Poljanec is currently completing his studies at the Ljubljana Conservatory of Music and Ballet, while Jan Čibej is a first-year student at the Ljubljana Academy of Music. In April 2017 they accepted the challenge of their teacher and mentor S. Klavžar and began preparing as a duo for the International Percussion Competition Luxembourg (IPCL), the prestigious chamber percussion ensemble competition held in Luxembourg every three years. Their performances at the competition in February 2018 convinced jury and public alike, and they achieved a remarkable success. They were named Percussion Duo Laureates 2018 and won both the overall first prize and the Jean Gieres Audience Prize. In March 2018 they entered the Svirél International Music Competition in the woodwind, brass and percussion chamber groups category, won a gold plaque as best in category and performed at the final "Ten of the Best" concert. Both began playing percussion at a very young age and although they are still students they have already scored enviable successes in national and international competitions. They have regularly participated in additional training, for example at the Nebojša Jovan Živković Summer Academy, the International Katarzyna Myćka Marimba Academy in Hanover, KALIMA and the Amsterdam Marimba Weekend. They have attended masterclasses with world-famous teachers and percussionists.

kvintet Vivus je začel delovati avgusta 2017 zaradi želje po izpopolnjevanju in izvajanju kakovostne glasbe. Premierno je nastopil na Evropskem forumu v Alpbachu, Avstrija. Med drugim so sledili nastop v sklopu abonmajskih koncertov Univerze za glasbo in upodabljačo umetnost v Gradcu, radijsko snemanje ter dosežena srebrna plaketa na mednarodnem tekmovanju Svirél. V njem je pet članov iz treh držav: iz Madžarske je Dorina Biro (fagot), iz Avstrije Gabriel Maul (rog), in iz Slovenije Aleksandra Škrilec (flavta), Nina Smrekar (oboa), in Andraž Golob (klarinet).

Citrarka Eva Novak se je rodila leta 2002 v Celju. Po končani osnovni šoli se je lani vpisala na 1. gimnazijo v Celju – umetniška gimnazija, glasbena smer. V glasbeno šolo se je vpisala v tretjem razredu osnovne šole. Leto kasneje se je udeležila prvega tekmovanja Temsig in prejela zlato plaketo. V komorni zasedbi se je naslednje leto udeležila tekmovanja Svirél in osvojila zlato plaketo. Leto pozneje se je tekmovanja Svirél udeležila kot solistka in prejela srebrno priznanje. Tekmovanja Temsig se je vnovič udeležila in osvojila zlato plaketo, prvo nagrado in posebno nagrado za najbolje izvedeno obvezno skladbo, ki je bila samostojni koncert na festivalu Lent. V naslednjih letih je na tekmovanju Svirél s komorno skupino prejela srebrno plaketo, sama pa osvojila zlato priznanje. Po vpisu na glasbeno gimnazijo se je letos ponovno prijavila na tekmovanje Svirél ter osvojila zlato priznanje in uvrstitev v finale Ten of the best med godali in brenkali.

Pravi, da je njen cilj v prihodnosti spodbujati mlade h glasbi in jih navdihovati za ta inštrument, prav tako pa citre prikazati širši množici in pokazati, kaj vse se na to glasbilo poleg ljudskih pesmi da zaigrati.

Anže Krevh prihaja iz Zgornjega Lehna na Pohorju, občina Ribnica na Pohorju. Star je 17 let in obiskuje tretji letnik Tehniškega šolskega centra v Mariboru, smer tehnik mehatronike. Diatonično harmoniko je začel igrati pri šestih. Že vse od začetka ima voljo do trdega dela, predvsem pa veselje, kar se izraža na tekmovanjih, ki jih obiskuje, saj mu zmeraj uspe doseči dober rezultat. Najbolj ponosen je na naslove, ki jih je prejel, in sicer: absolutni državni prvak 2015, absolutni evropski prvak 2016 in lani naslov absolutnega mladinskega svetovnega prvaka. Trenutno je njegov mentor mag. M. Šavron, s katerim prirejata novejšo klasično glasbo na diatonično harmoniko, kar je za ta inštrument zelo nenavadno in zlasti težavnostno. V prihodnosti se vidi v solo karieri z željo po ustvarjanju in prirejanju predvsem drugačnih skladb za diatonično harmoniko.

Lovro Gašpar je bil rojen leta 2004 v Zagrebu. V Sesvetah obiskuje šesti, zadnji razred Glasbene šole Zlatka Grgoševića na oddelku za tamburice, inštrument brač, pri profesorici K. Šimičić. Kot solist in kot član tamburaškega orkestra Glasbene šole Zlatka Grgoševića sodeluje na številnih javnih nastopih, produkcijah in koncertih, tako v sklopu glasbene šole kot v sodelovanju z drugimi šolami in organizacijami. Že od desetega leta sodeluje na regionalnih, državnih in mednarodnih tekmovanjih. Na mednarodnem tekmovanju mladih glasbenikov Sonus op. 5 v Križevcih (2017) je osvojil prvo nagrado, na 55. regionalnem tekmovanju učencev in študentov glasbe in plesa v Jastrebarskem (2017) je prejel prvo nagrado, na 55. državnem tekmovanju učencev in študentov glasbe in plesa v Zagrebu (2017) pa drugo nagrado. Za njegova največja uspeha štejeta prva nagrada v kategoriji solo brenkala (citre, harfe, kitare in tamburica) na mednarodnem glasbenem tekmovanju Svirél v Novi Gorici in izbor na tekmovanje Ten of the best. Za Lovra je glasba predvsem radost, zato želi s pomočjo svoje nadarjenosti in usvojene glasbene spretnosti nadaljevati to pot na srednješolski stopnji pri profesorici K. Šimičić.

Zrinka Mužek je osnovno in srednješolsko glasbeno izobraževanje končala na Glasbeni šoli Blagoja Berse v Zagrebu. Klavir je začela študirati leta 2006 na Umetniški akademiji v Splitu, kjer je pod mentorstvom J. Garin leta 2011 tudi magistrirala. Tekmovala je tako kot solistka kot komorna glasbenica. Kot članica komornih zasedb je sodelovala na seminarjih komorne glasbe v nemškem Weikersheimu pod vodstvom Matthiasa Kirschnereita, Heimeja Müllerja, kvarteta Vogler (Tim Vogler), kvarteta Casals (Vera Martinez Mehner) ter Konrada Elserja. Udeleževala se je tudi seminarjev glasbenikov in profesorjev, kot so Vladimir Krpan, Đuro Tikvica, Sergio De Simone, Natalia Troull, Vesna Podrug Kossjanenko. Leta 2017 je nastopila v Mali dvorani Vatroslava Lisinskega s flavtistko Matejo Šarlijo v sklopu Tribine »Darka Lukića«. Od leta 2013 je profesorica klavirja na Glasbeni šoli Zlatka Grgoševića v Sesvetah.

The Vivus Quintet formed in August 2017 and gave its first performance at the European Forum Alpbach in Austria. Other milestones have included a performance in the subscription concert series of the University of Music and the Performing Arts in Graz, recording for the radio and a silver plaque at the Svirél International Music Competition. The quintet's five members hail from three different countries: Dorina Biro (bassoon) is from Hungary, Gabriel Maul (horn) is from Austria, while Aleksandra Škrilec (flute), Nina Smrekar (oboe) and Andraž Golob (clarinet) are from Slovenia.

Zither player Eva Novak was born in Celje in 2002. Last year she started upper secondary school, enrolling in the arts section (music stream) of the First Gymnasium in Celje. She began attending music school when in the third year of primary school. A year later she took part in her first TEMSIG competition and won a gold plaque. She later began playing in a trio with another zither player and a guitarist, entering the Svirél International Music Competition with them and winning a gold plaque. Part of their prize was an invitation to give a concert of their own as part of the Musical Evenings series in Bukovica (Vipava Valley). She participated in the next edition of Svirél as a soloist and received a silver certificate. She entered the national young musicians' competition TEMSIG for a second time and won a gold plaque, a first prize and a special prize for the best performance of the required piece, consisting of a solo concert at the Lent Festival. This was her first solo concert. At subsequent editions of the Svirél competition she won a silver plaque with a chamber group and a gold certificate as a soloist. Having enrolled at upper secondary school, she once again entered the Svirél competition and won a gold certificate and a place in the "Ten of the Best" final in the bowed and plucked string instruments category. She would also like to help make the zither better known and demonstrate the different kinds of music (not just folk songs) that can be played on it.

Anže Krevh is from Zgornji Lehen na Pohorju in the municipality of Ribnica na Pohorju in north-eastern Slovenia. He is 17 years old and is currently a third-year student in the secondary mechatronics programme at the Technical Education Centre in Maribor. He began playing the diatonic accordion at the age of six. Having practised hard since the beginning, he particularly enjoys taking part in competitions, where he has always achieved good results. He is proudest of all of the titles he has won: national champion in 2015, European champion in 2016 and, last year, youth world champion. He is currently mentored by M. Šavron, with whom he likes to arrange contemporary classical music for the diatonic accordion, something very unusual – and demanding – for this instrument. In the future he sees himself embarking on a solo career, in which he hopes to create and arrange a variety of works for the diatonic accordion.

Lovro Gašpar was born in Zagreb in 2004. He is currently a student in the sixth and final year of the Zlatko Grgošević Music School in Zagreb's Sesvete district, where he studies the brač in the tamburica department with K. Šimičić. As a soloist and as a member of the tamburica orchestra of the Zlatko Grgošević Music School he has taken part in numerous public performances, productions and concerts, both with the music school and in collaboration with other schools and organisations. He has been participating in regional, national and international competitions since he was ten years old. He won a first prize at the Sonus Op. 5 International Young Musicians' Competition in Križevci (2017), a first prize at the 55th Regional Competition for Students of Music and Dance in Jastrebarsko (2017) and a second prize at the 55th National Competition for Students of Music and Dance in Zagreb (2017). He considers his greatest successes to be his first prize in the solo plucked string instruments category (zither, harp, guitar and tamburica) at the Svirél International Music Competition in Nova Gorica and being selected for the final "Ten of the Best" competition. Music is his greatest joy and he wishes to use his talent and skill to continue his musical journey at upper secondary school with K. Šimičić.

Zrinka Mužek completed her primary and secondary musical education at the Blagoje Bersa Music School in Zagreb. In 2006 she enrolled as a piano student at the Arts Academy of the University of Split, where she studied with J. Garin before earning her master's degree in 2011. She has competed both as a soloist and as a chamber musician. As a member of chamber groups she has taken part in chamber music seminars in Weikersheim (Germany) led by Matthias Kirschnereit, Heime Müller, the Vogler Quartet (Tim Vogler), the Casals Quartet (Vera Martínez Mehner) and Konrad Elser. She has also attended seminars with musicians and teachers such as Vladimir Krpan, Đuro Tikvica, Sergio De Simone, Natalia Trull and Vesna Podrug Kossjanenko. In 2017 she gave a performance in the Small Hall of the Vatroslav Lisinski Concert Hall in Zagreb with flautist Mateja Šarlija as part of the Darko Lukić Forum. She has taught piano at the Zlatko Grgošević Music School in Zagreb since 2013.
